

Tuesday
September 11, 1945

My Darling Floyd,

I finally have sent your mother's dishes off to her today. I bought a service for six of a very attractive plain white pottery. It is Franciscan Ware which also makes the Apple Pattern. I decided six is enough for kitchen ware because Mother has her china for the dining room. It came to $29.21 and I paid $10.00 of it and will complete payment next month. Today I also picked up our Apple Pattern dishes which came express collect $40.50. Also the rest of the Kodachrome pictures came and that was an additional $4.50. Two of Ronnie aren't

2. so bad.

Tomorrow is my appointment with the doctor again. I know I've gained way too much this time because I wasn't a bit strict about my diet these past three weeks. Woe is me!

No mail again today. I wish I understood why it's being held up. I know there will be a reasonable explanation

Goodnight, my wonderful husband. I worship you, Floyd, and miss you more than ever as time goes by.

Your loving wife,

Melva