

Aaron is a first grade teacher in Sebastopol, California. He also plays bass guitar and his group has actually performed. Aaron hopes to travel back east and to El Paso this summer.

Donna is teaching eighth grade Language Arts and Social Studies in Lincoln Unified in Stockton, California. Donna traveled all over this summer and plans travel some more this summer. Part of her travels are taking her to old family roots in Iowa, Missouri, and maybe Kansas.

Brad has graduated from University of California at Santa Cruz. He is now a supervisor of waiters in Santa Cruz as he performs in a variety of productions. He was in "Carousel" this summer, "Fiddler on the Roof" this fall and is currently in a 5 person murder triller in Monterey.

John spends his time either on one of his two motorcycles or on our new G4 computer. John has also been giving motorcycle lessons to his sons, fixing everything in the house, keeping the cars going, getting letters printed in the paper and truck driving to a McDonald's (or two).
