Happy New Year

Aaron changed districts this year and teaches math and Spanish in Santa Rosa. Michael is now nine years old and in fourth grade. Rita works for a pharmacy knitting company with some days at home.

Donna got to reunite with half of her surviving cousins in February. She also went to Spring training in Arizona and visited Brad in NYC. She continues her exercise classes and writing groups.

Brad will introduce us to Ian Gallagher when they join us for Christmas. Brad continues to survive in NYC
as a personal training.

John continues to jog and bike wherever possible. He continues to defy his age.
He also survived a major renovation to our condo.

Happy holidays to you and yours. May your next year be full of joy.
